CYBER SECURITY CONNECT UK THIRD EDITION
CONFIRMED FOR FEBRUARY 2021

Cyber Security Connect UK \(CSCUK\), the leading cyber security one-to-one conference and networking forum for Chief Information Security Officers (CISOs), has confirmed that the Third Edition has been rescheduled from November 2020 to take place from 15 to 17 February 2021.

Cyber Security Connect UK is an exclusive event that has proven hugely popular among the cyber security community and will be returning to the Grimaldi Forum in Monaco in February 2021 .

Aurore Domange, event director for CSCUK, said: " Our community is at the heart of CSCUK .and after extensive consultation with our partners we have decided to reschedule CSCUK to 2021. We remain committed to ensuring that the exclusive nature of CSCUK continues in a safe environment in-line with new ways of working.

"The key to CSCUK is peer-to-peer engagement at a high-level which facilitates informative, educational and thought-provoking debate, so that CISOs can share experiences. Doing business is a critical component of building back better and we look forward to CSCUK helping to create new opportunities next year."

Last year CSCUK featured more than 300 high-level participants including CISOs from a cross section of leading UK businesses including; Lloyds Banking Group, Atkins, British Red Cross, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, Inmarsat, Royal Academy of Arts and Vodaphone.

The unique environment explored the challenges facing the cyber security profession across all sectors with eye-opening presentations from both current and former UK and US government officials, highlighting the need for solid IT foundations to cope with legacy systems and fast-moving cyber criminal activity across the globe.
